MONKEYPOD KITCHEN

KO OLINA

Set in the middle of Ko Olina (place of joy) you'll find Monkeypod Kitchen which boasts two-stories of incredible dining. It is located directly across the street from Disney's Aulani and Four Seasons Resort Oahu at Ko Olina.

Lots of local musicians play here which helps create a great vibe for just eating and enjoying. Their mai tai's are the best we've had. A personal favorite is also their Bulgogi Pork Tacos. Monkeypod Kitchen is always a solid choice!

EGGS 'N THINGS

HONOLULU, ALA MOANA, & KO OLINA

Known for their epic breakfast, especially their pancakes, Eggs 'n Things' menu is surprisingly vast and very tasty. As a local favorite since 1974, it's not surprising to find a wait for breakfast. But it's worth it!

This is also a great place if you're visiting as a family. It is very keikei friendly. So much so that every Sunday and Tuesday night you can get a FREE kid's meal after 2pm with with the purchase of each regularly priced entree!

MARGARITAS

HONOLULU

Photos by: Margaritas Hawaii

Being from SoCal, we survive on great Mexican food. However, it is hard to find in Hawaii. We've tried a bunch, but none compares to Margaritas. From traditional Tex Mex dishes to fun Asian-infused plates, Margaritas is a must try. Ok, now that we got the food out of the way, their drinks are equally AMAZING!

Let's be real, finding a decent drink on the Waikiki Strip is tough. Unless you want something that tastes like watered-down kool aid with a splash of rum, it's hard to find a good drink. As a self-proclaimed margarita connoisseur, I've never had a better one or two than at Margaritas.

THE SUNRISE SHACK

SUNSET BEACH & OUTRIGGER WAIKIKI

If you want good vibes + great food + energy, then this is the spot. If you have time to experience their location on the North Shore, do it! Both locations serve up their menu of bullet coffee, smoothies, and sandwiches

Some of our favorites include their Mac Nut Bullet, Blue Dream Bowl, and Loaded Avocado Toast. Just thinking about their avocado toast right now makes me hunger! It's always a good day at the Shack. Shirts optional.

GIOVANNI'S SHRIMP TRUCK

NORTH SHORE

Photos by: Giovanni's Shrimp Truck

Going to Giovanni's on the North Shore is an experience. It is pretty much always busy. The best time is right when they open at 10:30am. Another important thing to note is that they are CASH ONLY. There's an ATM across the street, if needed.

But the FOOD. There are a lot of food trucks throughout Oahu, but none compare to Giovanni's. All of them are good, but there's something special about Giovanni's. Hit 'em up on your way up to Haleiwa!

LEONARD'S BAKERY

HONOLULU & WAIPAHAU (FOOD TRUCK)

Photos by: @araneta89

Got a sweet tooth?!? Leonard's will satisfy that craving. What started it all was their malasadas. "A malasada is a Portuguese doughnut without a hole. We fry generously-sized balls of dough until it's golden brown on the outside and light & fluffy on the inside." -Leonard's Bakery

You can't go wrong with any of their flavorings. Our favorites are the original and cinnamon sugar. Their main store is always busy, and the parking lot is small. So, just take your time. You're in Hawaii on island-time anyways!

ISLAND VINTAGE WINE BAR

WAIKIKI

Photos by: Heejin Chang & Kumi A.

In our opinion, Island Vintage Wine Bar is currently a hidden-gem in a not so hidden location. Next door is Island Vintage Coffee which is always busy'. The wine bar is the same menu, more seating, and oh, it's a wine bar! There's literally wine bottles on tap. We've never seen this before!

A few of our recommendations are their mimosas, anything poke, and the wagyu burger. As a bonus, you can order anything from the coffee shop at your table, too.

SEVEN BROTHERS

KAHUKU & LAIE

With a focus on aloha and ohana (family) it's hard to beat the feel and vibe of Seven Brothers. As a family owned and operated business, you'll quickly find that Seven Brothers is about more than a meal.

Seven Brothers is known for their epic burgers. Their ground beef is always fresh and all their greens are organic. If you like something a bit more spicy definitely try their Spencer Burger.

CINNAMONS

KAILUA

In the heart of Kailua town, Cinnamon's is open for breakfast or lunch. This is one of the best breakfast spots on the east side of Oahu.

Their sisig loco moco and guava pancakes are where it's at! However, their entire breakfast menu won't disappoint. Definitely worth starting the day off at Cinnamon's.

HALE'IWA BEACH HOUSE

Photo by: Hale'iwa Beach House

"The Haleiwa Beach House is the newest and largest restaurant in Haleiwa, on Oahu's North Shore. We have done extensive renovations to the old Jameson's building, bringing it back to its glory days, while keeping with the country feel of this beautiful town. Located across from Ali'i beach, we offer unmatched Haleiwa views."
-Haleiwa Beach House

With a wide variety and extensive menu, the Beach House is a great place for families and large parties. Come here for their amazing food and stay for the views overlooking the ocean.
